The Class of 1975 gratefully dedicates this yearbook to our custodians, Mr. Robert King and Mr. Virgil Borkowsky. Though we have often taken them for granted during the last four years, we shall never forget their perseverence and understanding. They may be only two men, but they have the good nature of ten times as many. Thank you, Bob and Virg.

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1975, Cory-Rawson High School, Hancock County, Ohio, being of sound mind and body, realizing the impossibility of forever keeping these things which we hold so dear, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore by us:

We, the members of the Senior Class, individually will the following:

I, Kris Latham, will my field drum to Trudy Schaller in hopes she will be able to break it too.

I, Jay Bosse, will to Neal Harris my ability to talk Mr. Deeds out of having class.

I, Barb Bower, will Petunia (my piccolo) to Merlin Marshall so he can play it in the Mickey Mouse Band.

I, James Reichley, will my mind to any one who is stupid enough to take it.

I, Steve Krieger, with the authority vested in me, will my ability to get along with Mr. Deeds in Farm Management to Tom Higbie so he can learn how to farm.

I, Tom Newman, will nothing to nobody. Any questions or comments?

I, Jill Bibler, will to Merlin Marshall a great group of senior band members in the future, just as he had this year.

I, Roger Badertscher, will to any licensed (or unlicensed) driver the ability to walk into school just before the morning tardy bell rings.

I, Jill Elling, do hereby will to John Rader my beloved mute to keep forever and a day so that he will always remember when to play and SOFT-just as I always did.

I, Jane Beach, will my "dumb-blonde"-ness to Beth Seiler, even though I don't think she will need it.

I, Tim Opp, will my wrestling abilities to next year's 105 pound state champion, Jim Wagner. Do your best.

I, Denise Marquart, will my yellow Afro wig to Mrs. Collingwood and Mrs. Huffman and my Burt Reynolds mirror to Tim "Munchkin" Marshall to use as a reference.

I, Timothy Lee Hampton, hereby will my ability to get out of the library without getting caught to any lower classman who enjoys freedom.

I, Michael Patton, will my position as head bass drummer to Bruce Traucht.

I, Theodore Alan Doolittle, will my ability to get along with the administration to my little brother. I'm sure he'll need it.

I, Wade Melton, will my ability to be in the office during 13th and 14th mods to Tim Jones.

I, Mike Benroth, will all my future bills, payments, and installments to Mr. Rossman. Got my meaning?

I, Ron Hartman, will my great kick to Wayne Beach so that he may win the 880 at BVC next season.

I, Wanda Barrett, will all of my art history cheat sheets to Jackie Youtsey in hopes she will use them proudly in time of need.

I, Rick Miller, will my ability to skip school and not get caught to Brad Entsminger and Joe Faine.

I, Sherri Welch, being of sound mind and body, will to Mr. Inbody six inches of my hair so his head won't be cold in the winter.

I, Scott Youtsey, being of sound mind and body, will all of my art ability to Mrs. Ream.

I, Linda Hatch, will my fantastic tallness to Carol Meyer.

I, Beth Carr, will my height to Deb Basinger so that she can be the tallest guard on a basketball team in the country.

I, Kim Fraley, will to Mr. Inbody my private collection of home movies so he will have a different movie to show his class everyday.

I, Louise Frech, will my ability to complete twelve years of school (13 counting kindergarden) and to graduate to anyone who needs it.

I, Jim Moyer, will to Neal "Hammering Hank" Harris one steady girlfriend by the end of Senior year rather than 31.

I, Jeff Redick, will to Joe Hatch my ability to get a trashcan full of haircut letters.

I, Laura Shellenbarger, will my ability to sit through all of Mr. Inbody's movies to any junior who needs it.

I, LuAnn Wynkoop, being of sound mind hereby will my hairbrush to Bob Corbin, so he won't have to keep taking it!

I, Larry S. Rader, will my sideburns and all my power to Paul Oman.

I, Lora Jean Waltz, will my ability to get OUT of study hall to work in the office to anyone who wants to do something INTERESTING for a change.

I, Cheryal Heldman, will my knowledge of shorthand to Deb Hawley, who never could understand it.

I, Mike Heldman, hereby will my mechanical ability to the one who needs it most-Joe Hatch (Scratch).

I, Becky Bishop, will the responsibility of caring for Jack Edward Rabbit to Renee, Joyce, Cindy, and Maree; may he live a long eventful life and never get locked in his light switch box again.

I, Joe Hartman, will my ability to get along with Mr. Deeds to anyone who needs it.

I, Bruce Clements, will my worn out converse to Mark Wilson.

I, Marty Johnson, will Gones my hook; maybe between the two of us the ball will go straight.

I, Diane Bowyer, will my newspaper route to anyone in 5th and 6th mods. (Mr. Inbody is my only customer, so you will not collect much money.)

I, Rachel Peter, will my ability to get something in my contact when the teacher asks a question I don't know to anyone who wears contacts.

I, Matt Huffman, do hereby will to Jack Enderle my Arlington, L-B, and Bluffton Big Stinger stickers so he can look tuff when they beat the . . . out of them.

I, Rhea Businger, will my ability to frustrate Mr. Leuthold in senior math class by paying attention and talking to the person in front of me at the same time, and also my ability to keep Mr. Inbody in his place to Renee Camper.

I, Mike Wilson, will my Bookkeeping II practice sets to anyone who can understand them.

I, Jana Reese, being of sound mind and body, do hereby will my ability to get out of problems class to any up-coming Senior who needs it.

I, Mark Powell, will my ability to drive a car with a four speed to Karen Heldman.

I, Michael R. Rettig, will Deborah S. Frazier my old tuba and my ability to play it.

I, Doug Swisher, will my position as Jim Wagner's wrestling coach to Wes Montgomery.

I, Gary Blosser, will my ability to eat lunch in Bluffton and meet Mr. Berry at the door when I get back to anyone in Farm Management.

I, Nina Bish, will Jack Edward Rabbit to Mr. Cox, who brutally locked him up in the light switch box in the main hall by the music room door. May you enjoy his company as much as we did.

I, Jim Edinger, will my electric tennies to Clarence Allen.

I, Dave Green, will my braces to any underclassman who wishes to experience ripped out lips.

THE HARD WAY EVERY TIME

I've had my share of broken dreams
And more than a couple of falls
And in chasing what I thought were moonbeams
I have run into a couple of walls
But in looking back
At the places I've been
And the changes that I've left behind
I just look at myself to find
I've learned the hard way every time

'Course I've had my share of good intentions
And I've made my share of mistakes
And I've learned at times it's best to bend
'Cause if you don't, well, those are the breaks
I should have listened to the things I was told
But I was young and too proud at the time
Now I look at myself and find
I've learned the hard way every time

Yes, in looking back at the lessons I've learned
And the mountains I've wanted to climb
I just look at myself to find
I've learned the hard way every time

'Cause I've had my share of broken dreams
And more than a couple of falls
And in chasing what I thought were moonbeams
I have run into a couple of walls
But in looking back
At the places I've been
I would sure be the first one to say
When I look at myself today
I wouldn't have done it another way

GIRLS' SPORTS SUMMARIES

BASKETBALL

The girls' basketball team opened the season with a 60-29 loss to the Van Buren Black Knights. Julie Woodruff led scoring with 17 points. The Reserves lost 30-8.

In the first conference game the Hornets nipped the Pandora Rockets 23-22. Woodruff again was leading scorer with 18 while Beth Carr added 5 more. The Reserves also won their first conference game 19-11.

The girls sneaked by the Vanlue Wildcats 50-48 in a hard-fought second win in a league game. Deb Basinger led the Hornet attack with 16 points; Woodruff, Carr, and Kriss Latham added 10 more each. The Reserves lost 31-14.

Our third straight conference win was over the Arcadia Redskins 35-23. Carr had 13 points, with Basinger and Woodruff chipping in 8 markers apiece.

We won another close game by downing the L-B Eagles 41-38. Carr hit for 18 points and Basinger added 12. The Reserves lost 15-13.

The Hornets won their fifth straight conference game 56-35 against Hardin-Northern. Carr led the scoring with 22 points; Basinger had 16 and Woodruff 9. The Reserves won 26-14.

Next we trounced the Riverdale Falcons 55-40. Basinger led scoring with 18 points, Woodruff hit for 17, and Carr had 12. Reserves lost 38-22.

The girls' sixth conference win was 54-43 over the Leipsic Vikings. Carr netted 20; Basinger had 16 and Woodruff 9. The Reserves won 30-24.

Against the Arlington Red Devils we won 51-37. Carr tallied 20 points, with Basinger hitting for 10 and Latham for 9. The Reserves lost 29-22.

The last regular season game saw the Varsity dump the McComb Panthers 61-43. Basinger led with 17 markers and Woodruff hit for 16. Carr added 12 and Latham netted 8. The Reserves ended their season with a 42-36 victory, giving them a 4-5 final record. The Varsity record was 9-1. Both teams were coached by Sue Spoon.

As tournament play opened, we slipped past Arlington 52-51. In the exciting triple overtime Carr hit for 22, Woodruff and Latham had 11 each, and Basinger had 6. In the championship game against Van Buren the Varsity lost in a closely contested 40-35 match. Woodruff scored 13; Latham, Carr, and Basinger netted 6 apiece.

VOLLEYBALL

Both the Varsity and Junior Varsity girls' volleyball teams had winning seasons. They were both aptly coached by Sue Spoon. The Varsity compiled a 6-4 record while the Junior Varsity ended the season 9-1. The Varsity lost several close games and the JV's only loss was at the hands of the Vanlue Wildcats. The girls and Coach Spoon gave much time and effort in practices and games to make this year a highly successful one.

SOFTBALL

Coach Jerry Hughes is to be credited for her hard work to make this very first year for girls' softball at C-R memorable and successful. The girls won two of the five games they played and also won against Van Buren and Vanlue by forfeits. The team worked hard throughout the season, often coping with the added frustration of rainy weather. We hope next year will prove even more rewarding as both softball and girls' sports in general expand here at C-R.

The scores of games played are as follows: C-R over Hardin-Northern 42-15, Arlington over C-R 23-4, Arcadia over C-R 12-7, C-R over Liberty Benton 20-17, and McComb over C-R 6-5.
